Instructional Course Lectures Trauma 2

Rely on Ovid as the trusted solution that transforms research into results

Here's a focused collection of the most relevant orthopaedic trauma lectures from six AAOS annual meetings, presented by orthopaedic surgeons who specialize in trauma.

The authors give you experience-based solutions and powerful insights on how trauma experts solve a number of their toughest cases. Some of today's leading trauma surgeons draw on their own experience to guide you through this volume. Their section introductions and commentary relates these practical topics and hands-on surgical solutions to your everyday clinical practice. From adult trauma and soft-tissue management to pediatric conditions and complex fractures, this compilation is a must-have for anyone who takes call.
