Psychiatry in the Elderly

This is a new edition of the classic and comprehensive textbook of old age psychiatry. The coverage has been expanded to survey the major developments in the field of genetics and in understanding the dementias, as well as including new chapters on quality of life measurement, the economics of care, suicide in old age, hallucinations and functional symptoms in Parkinson's Disease.

Publication Year 2002
Author/Editor Robin Jacoby and Catherine Oppenheimer
Publisher Oxford University Press (OUP)
ISBN 978-0-192-63151-0
Platform Ovid
Product Type Book
Speciality Geriatrics & Gerontology
Psychiatry
Language English
Pages 1024
Illustrations 0