These are the first pseudo-isochromatic plates in China.
* The second best selling book in People’s Medical Publishing House
* Accurately determining the congenital color deficiency and abnormality
* Categorizing color blindness into four classes so as to adapt to the different needs of various professions in China