EconLit covers world economics literature since 1886!

Students and professionals at all levels rely on EconLit’s broad scope and authoritative, up-to-date coverage with nearly 1.3 million records and coverage as far back as 1886. Nearly 65,000 entries are added each year.

EconLit includes the most sought-after economics publications including peer-reviewed journal articles, working papers from leading universities, PhD dissertations, books, collective volume articles, conference proceedings, and book reviews - all expertly indexed, classified, and linkable to full-text library holdings.

Students and professionals at all levels rely on EconLit’s broad scope and authoritative, up-to-date coverage.

Publisher
American Economic Association

Platform
Ovid

Product Type
DataBase

Speciality
Business & Economics

Language
English

Frequency
Monthly

Coverage
1886 - Present

Number of Records
over 1.3 million

Records Added Annually
65,000