The Journal of Christian Nursing, a publication of Nurses Christian Fellowship, is a quarterly, peer reviewed, professional journal by and for nurses.

JCN strives to help nurses and nursing students view nursing through the eyes of faith and practice nursing from a biblically-based, Christian perspective.

JCN offers relevant peer-reviewed clinical and professional information, including original research, on: current issues and trends, spirituality and spiritual care, ethics, values, healing and wholeness, faith community nursing, healthcare missions, nursing education, personal growth and self-care, health care for the poor and disenfranchised, and nursing care experiences which promote excellence and encourage nurses.
